Well the bride looked a picture in the gown that her momma wore

B
When she was married herself nearly twenty-seven years before

E
They had to change the style a little but it looked just fine

B
Stayed up all night but they got it finished just in time

E
Now on the arm of her daddy she's walking down the aisle B
And she catches my eye and she gives me a secret smile E
Maybe it's too old-fashioned but we were once close friends B
But the way she looks today she never could have then E

Well I can see her now in her tight blue jeans

E
Pumping all her money in the record machine

Spinning like a top, you shoulda seen her go

I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll B E
I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll
I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll
I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll

Now a proud daddy only wanna give his little girl the best
So he put down a grand on a cosy little lovers nest
You could have called the reception an unqualified success
And a posh hotel for a hundred and fifty guests

Well I can see her now drinking with the boys
Breaking their hearts like they were toys
She used to love to party, she used to love to go
I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll
I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll
I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll
I knew the bride when she used to rock and roll
